torian will not interfere with the completion of the Work. The Fourth Volume, finishing the reign of Louis XIV., is in type, and the eminent

"Of the work itself, as a simple and yet valuable outline of historical facts, it is difficult to speak too highly."—Daily News.

in the hands of English students and readers."—Belfast News Letter.
"It supplies a want which has long been felt, and ought to be in the hands of all students of history."—Times.

"Any historical work from so accomplished a writer as M. Guizot must be welcomed in this country not less than in France, and it would be superfluous for us to do more than draw attention to a work which has already taken its place in French literature."—Standard.

the 'History of France,' which was so nobly planned, has been hitherto no less admirably executed."—From long Review of Vol. III. in the

THE SACRED ANTHOLOGY:

A BOOK OF ETHNICAL SCRIPTURES.

By MONCURE D. CONWAY, M.A.

(Extract from Prof. Max Müller's Address at the Oriental Congress.)

"A patient study of the sacred Scriptures of the world is what is wanted at present, more than anything else, in order to clear our ideas of the origin, the nature, and the purposes of religion. In the end we shall be able to restore that ancient bond which unites not only the East with the West, but all the members of the human family, and may learn what a Persian poet meant when he wrote many centuries ago—I quote from Mr. Conway's 'Sacred Anthology'—'Diversity of worship has divided the human race into seventy-two nations. From among all their dogmas I have selected one—the love of God.'"

THE ACADEMY

A WEEKLY REVIEW OF

LITERATURE, SCIENCE, ART, MUSIC, AND THE STAGE,

Contains:

REVIEWS and NOTICES of all important New Books, English and Foreign.

REPORTS of TRAVEL, EXPLORING EXPEDITIONS, &c.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE, ANTIQUITIES and FOLKLORE.

NEWS LETTERS from Foreign Countries.

CORRESPONDENCE between Literary Men.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENTS.

NOTES on the PROGRESS of SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY in all branches.

CRITICISMS of the PICTURE GALLERIES, of the STAGE, and of MUSIC.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The ACADEMY may fairly claim the first place among literary journals as the representative of the ripest and soundest English scholarship; and its criticisms of art, literature, music, and the drama are informing, incisive, and trustworthy."

"It is hardly possible in a few words to give an idea of the excellence of this old journal in its new form, but every subject with which it deals (and it deals with many untouched by other papers) is entrusted to the hands of men who know what they are writing about, and the result is a freshness and fulness of information and an accuracy of judgment which commands confidence, and ministers to the intellectual satisfaction and pleasure of the reader. . . . The accomplished and scholarly dramatic critic of the ACADEMY, Mr. Frederick Wedmore, the novelist, whose theatrical notices are perhaps the best in style and the most trustworthy now appearing in any London journal."—Manchester City News.

"Our contemporary the ACADEMY has suddenly sprung into a great literary position, and is full of instructive and interesting matter."—Spectator.

"The ACADEMY, in its new and enlarged form, has a promising look. Its size is that of the Athenaeum, and the general arrangement of its contents does not differ much from that of its venerable and not too enterprising contemporary. The great distinction between the two is that the articles of the ACADEMY are signed. . . . It will be seen that there is no lack of strong names. But strong names will not of themselves float a new paper. The editing, the general tone, the make-up of it are more important, and of these too a good report can be given. . . . Altogether, the ACADEMY is very readable, and bids fair to be a formidable rival to the Athenaeum, which, for that matter, it might speedily and easily surpass in certain respects."—New York Tribune.

THE ACADEMY will pursue the purely practical aim of being a guide and source of information to all educated persons.
